

Parting shots and thoughts from the 2016 Colorado Medical Society Annual Meeting

"Now I know more about the impact of the proposed insurance mergers and the new forum for CMS proposals."

The work group also planned activities for families and guests.

Mark Levine, MD, and Carol Vargo, MHS, presented a plenary session and workshop on MACRA.

"I enjoyed being able to network with other docs in the state."

Nathan Panzer was honored as the Colorado Medical Society's 2016 junior division winner in the Health and Behavior Sciences category of the 61st Annual Colorado State Science and Engineering Fair. He is pictured with science fair judges Pete Smith, MD, (L), and Cory Carroll, MD, (R).

Incoming CMS President Katie Lozano, MD, congratulated outgoing CMS President Michael Volz, MD.

Mark your calendars and start planning to attend next year's annual meeting, Sept. 15-17, 2017, in Breckenridge.

A fun atmosphere helped medical students network with active physicians.
